CORE PROGRAM PRINCIPLES

Pioneers in Colombia

Coro Reconciliación is the first choir of its kind and a pioneer community impact program in the country

No cost to participants

The program is fully subsidized to alleviate the burden on participants as they work to reintegrate into society post-conflict

Reintegration activities

We offer our members more than just music; we empower them to promote their small businesses and cultivate essential social skills for success

91%

improved self-awareness and development of interpersonal abilities

88%

improved communication, self-expression and listening skills

95%

reported a better mood, increased motivation, and a greater sense of belonging.

79%

increased self-confidence and projection of future life possibilities

75%

developed trust, relationships and respect for differences

DID YOU KNOW?

When two people sing together, their voices aren't the only elements that harmonize; their heartbeats sync as well.

This synchronization transforms the choir into a profound expression of unity and connection, celebrating a true bond of fraternity and peace

"To me, the choir embodies revival and healing through song, and, perhaps an even more wonderful thing is, it allows me to connect with others who look for the same feeling."

- Virginia Saldarriaga, member of the choir
